May it please Your Majesty,

With my humble duty, on behalf of the Government of Jersey, I write to express my sincerest good wishes on your ascent to the throne.

Her late Majesty was an inspiration to many Islanders and through devoted service strengthened the deep loyalty that is felt towards the Crown in Jersey.

Our Island has a longstanding relationship to the Crown, stretching back to before 1066 through our historic links to the Duchy of Normandy. As Your Majesty will recall, His Majesty King Charles II bestowed the Island with a Royal Mace in 1663, after he had been proclaimed King in our Royal Square. It was particularly poignant for us all to celebrate Your Majesty's Proclamation and a new Carolean era in that same place.

I am certain that the warmth of feeling expressed by Islanders, particularly during Her late Majesty's reign, will be equally shown in your own.

I have the honour to remain, Sir, Your Majesty's most humble and obedient servant.

Deputy Kristina Moore
