States Meeting Summary 28 February

Question Time

Questions with notice

This morning's States Meeting began with States Members asking questions with notice. Skip to page 5 of the Order Paper to find out which questions were asked and watch from 9 minutes into this morning's States Meeting to hear questions with notice in full.

Questions without notice

States Members then asked the Minister for Housing and Communities, Deputy David Warr, Minister for International Development, Deputy Carolyn Labey, and the Chief Minister, Deputy Kristina Moore, questions without notice for 15 minutes each. Skip to 1 hour and 29 minutes into this morning's recording to watch the questions without notice.

Statements

Following question time, the Minister for Infrastructure, Deputy Tom Binet, made a statement regarding an update on the New Health Care Facilities project. This was followed by accompanying questions from other States Members. Skip to 2 hours and 26 minutes into this morning's recording to watch the statement.

A second statement was made by the Minister for Treasury and Resources, Deputy Ian Gorst, regarding a complaint relating to the calculation of pension entitlements from the Public Employees' Pension Fund. Skip to 2 hours and 45 minutes into this morning's recording to watch the statement.

Vote of no confidence

This afternoon's session consisted of a debate on Deputy Philip Bailhache's proposition for a vote of no confidence (VONC) against the Chair of the Health and Social Security Scrutiny Panel, Deputy Geoff Southern.

The States Assembly has adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday 01 March at 9:30am, when the debate will close on the VONC.
