Captain's Log, Star Date: Wednesday May 13th 2020.

"There's Klingons off the Starboard bow..."

Borders and bubbles. Quarantine rules over travel is a bubble being thought over and I suspect it will eventually burst into talk and action. If you travel to the UK, there are no quarantine rules, but it's 14 days self-isolation that is required if you come from the UK to Jersey. Safety advice will and must prevail of course. Will this impact and shape what any future business and leisure travel will look like or should we resist and look to CI travel in the short term? There are differing opinions.

As I said deliberately last night, these are testing times... and expect that testing to be a huge talking point over the next 24 hours.

Yesterday our President is on the ITV – Television, whilst I covered the radio interviews.

The radio interview is here scrolling forward to 3:11:22

The President's cool and calm interview can be viewed here at 11 minutes in:

Sadly, every online meeting now starts with the President singing a rousing rendition of "Video killed the radio star..."

It's a warm welcome to a whole host of new members of the Jersey Chamber of Commerce –_we had have around 30 join us in the last month and we are delighted they see the value of being represented and being informed – welcome to the nightly updates too, I'd send you the seven weeks of back copies, but seriously... you can have too much of a good thing (and too many song lyrics in your head!)

News

States Assembly sitting today

'There are more questions than answers...'

Among the Propositions Deputy Russell Labey proposed to allow States Assembly Members to ask Ministers questions on any subject, rather than COVID-19 related topics only during the additional Questions without Notice.

<https://statesassembly.gov.je/AssemblyPropositions/2020/P.54-2020.pdf>

The proposal was adopted with 30 votes FOR vs 12 AGAINST.

The next sitting is Tuesday 19th May 2020. Stick it in your diary.

Scrutiny

At 14:00 pm on Monday 18th May the Corporate Services Scrutiny Panel will hold a public hearing with the Minister for Treasury & Resources via Microsoft Teams. Over the following hour, they will question the Minister on the Government of Jersey's response to COVID-19 (Coronavirus), and her plans for the Island's economic recovery. There will be an opportunity for the public to watch too – more details on that tomorrow.

Extra two months for filing tax online

Islanders are reminded that the deadline for filing tax returns online is two months later than the deadline for paper filing. Paper forms need to be submitted, as usual, by the end of this month, but online forms do not need to be submitted until 31 July.

Help

The good people of the Jersey Hospitality Association are collating a full list of those offering al fresco under the Level 3 guidelines. If you've not let them know you are doing so, and want to be on the published list, email simon@jerseyhospitality.com

We understand plenty of information and lists for retail shops are underway too. Like... The Team at Channel 103fm, who have info on those open for business too – and very helpful is too...

More at <https://www.channel103.com/local/open-for-business/?fbclid=IwAR1H1LV6mJcLITcYDnIOB9H1mRSDJDrimOqjfWknjoPUUnIID44KfrAQ5E9Q>

Obviously, you can tell us too and we'll pass them on and – feature you here too (see below)

Food & Drink

We'll do our best to give you a flavour of those opening up in this section.

THE BOAT HOUSE
- ST AUBIN -

The Boat House is one of the many now open al fresco, you must book in advance :
